Devotion

A photography project by Patrick J Fenech and Chris Tribble. Patrick Fenech's work, deals mostly with the inception of life and the motherly attention and care viewed mainly during religious celebrations. Chris Tribble has chosen to look at Devotion from a different perspective. He has compiled a documentation from a set of informal personal photographs of his wife's mother, Dorothy, during the last two years of her life. In this instance devotion had a troubled and ambiguous quality as we try to maintain our affection for a person who is becoming more remote as a result of illness.

In the Light

Exhibition of paintings by Umeko Okano. Born in Hiroshima, Japan, Umeko was brought up in a culturally rich environment. At first she adopted a traditional Japanese approach known as "Nihon-Ga", two years later she shifted her method to oil painting. Although oils are suitable for the subjects of her works and do not unduly restrict her, she usually does not obtain the immediate result she expects of the colours and forms she depicts. So she often continues to work on a painting, adding details from her memory patiently.

The Carnival of Animals

A new exciting performance for children aged 6 upwards, produced by St. James Cavalier. The ever popular work by Camille Saint-Saens, is extended by additional music which has been commissioned from young composer Alex Vella Gregory.

The story follows a group of local animals in a charming musical tale of friendship and discovery. When a lizard and a weasel stumble on a caterpillar, they taunt him for being slow and ugly. Thankfully, a hedgehog appears to calm them down, but no sooner has he finished that the caterpillar undergoes a drastic transformation and none of the animals know how to deal with it, leaving them in awe. Based on an original concept by music director Sarah Spiteri and choreographer Emma Loftus.

Truth or Dare

By Du' Theatre. Four strange sisters. Three eccentric musicians. Seven deadly sins. One Game. These are the ingredients in the latest piece by the Du' girls and their musicians. We join the outlandish characters depicted as they journey through a labyrinth of quests which will make them face their weaknesses and fears, and which ultimately only the strongest of them will survive. It is a grotesque game of Truth and Dare sprinkled with an ounce of pride, a bite of lust, a dose of anger, a serving of sloth, a morsel of gluttony, a helping of envy and a measure of greed. Truth or Dare is an original piece written by Simone Spiteri with a line up including actors Franica Pulis, Magda van Kuilenburg, Kristjana Casha and Simone Spiteri with the participation of musicians Tim Ellis, Chris Cini and Michael Galea.

Upper and Lower Barrakka Gardens

Two gardens, facing the Grand Harbour in Valletta, both offering a panoramic view. The Upper Barrakka Gardens offer the best view since they're more centered and at a much higher level. It was the gift of an eighteenth-century knight. The Anglican Garrison Church partly intrudes upon it. The garden is built on top of a demi-bastion. The Lower Barrakka Gardens are part of St Christopher's Bastion and have a view of the harbour. At their center is a small Greek-style folly built in memory of Governor Sir Alexander Ball, who led the siege against the French in 1800 and subsequently became Britain's first civil commissioner of Malta. The French during the 1798-1800 siege cultivated these gardens.

Argotti Botanical Gardens

In 1805 the British governor appointed a Carmelite friar, Malta's first professor of natural history. He assembled the plants in Floriana's Mall and 50 years later they were moved to the site of the present Argotti Gardens, then the preserve of a deceased knight.
